

Areas of Expertise and Fee Structure

Warren Grant Immigration offers a full range of services relating to UK Immigration Law. Warren Grant is a sole practitioner with many years of experience including 13 years as a Judge in the Immigration Tribunal. He deals with all matters personally from start to finish but he does not conduct court advocacy for which the firm instructs members of the Bar who also advise and assist with complex issues arising out of appeals and review applications to higher courts.

Warren Grant's basic hourly rate is £300 and should you wish to meet him for a consultation at my office this will be the charge you will pay and it will include my preparation for our meeting and any follow-up email or phone call.

Our work includes visa applications under Points Based Categories for employers:

We charge £2000 to assist you to apply for a Sponsor Licence for your company or business. For this fee Warren Grant will review your business set-up with you in order to enable you to show a business need to employ your worker, help you to categorise the type of Skilled Worker you wish to employ, review the contract of employment which you are offering to your worker, assist you to apply for the Licence to include paying a fee for a priority decision, assist you to apply for a Certificate of Sponsorship (CoS) and then to assign it to your worker. He will give you suggestions on how to set up your Sponsor Management System (SMS).

Our work also covers Family Member applications, Visit Visa applications, applications for Leave to Remain in the United Kingdom including Indefinite Leave to Remain, Naturalisation and applications for those who are still able to rely upon the EU Settlement Scheme.

For most visa and leave applications Warren Grant currently charges a flat fee of £1500 which is payable in advance together with the fee for the application itself. He will charge £500 per dependent on the basis that the evidence we will need is basically the same for the main applicant and for the dependent(s).

Warren Grant will charge £1000 for Visit Visa applications but he will charge up to £1500 if there is a complication in your immigration history (such as a refusal of a previous visa application) which has to be resolved.

The firm will make all payments for fees relating to your application on your behalf and you will be copied by email into all receipts which are sent to the firm by email as the application fees are paid out. For current visa and in-country application fees please see and do not forget the Health Surcharge

Warren Grant Immigration is not registered for VAT. Most of our clients do not fall within the scope of those who are required to pay VAT. However, if we need to instruct an expert witness (who is registered for VAT) or to instruct a barrister (see my opening paragraph) and if you come within the scope of the VAT regulations then you will be liable to pay VAT on their fees. These payments come under the heading of disbursements and I notify you of the level of these and any other disbursements in advance. I will collect the disbursement fee from you. I pay it out and I send you a copy of the receipt.

Warren Grant Immigration is set up to work in the English language but you will be able to communicate with Warren Grant in your own language if you wish. You will have noticed from the firm's website that we have a phone number dedicated to Farsi speakers but otherwise we rely on interpreters who are generally people who are either known personally to Warren Grant or recommended to him and people with whom we believe you will feel comfortable. They fully understand the need to maintain client confidentiality and discretion. We will inform you in advance of the likely cost of any interpreting or document translating work and this figure will be added to our own fees. You can of course obtain your own translations of any documents which you wish to put forward in support of your case.

Warren Grant will work towards the deadline which applies to the application you wish to make. As part of the service, he will provide you with a list of documents and information which you must obtain and give to him either in hard copy or as attachments in good time for him to check each document and (if necessary) to scan it ready to upload to the application website. He will complete the application in draft, send it to you for approval and ensure that the document checklist is completed. He will make an appointment for you to give your biometrics and he will keep you up to date on the progress of your application. Whether or not the application is successful Warren Grant will share the outcome with you and in the unlikely event of a refusal he will advise you what can be done and how much it will cost.
